SAMUEL C. MAJOR. Howard County Man Strongly Endorsed for Democratic Nomination.

From the Sedalia Leader. Samuel C. Major of Fayette, Howard county, former member of the Missouri State Senate from the Fourteenth District is a candidate for the democratic nomination for congressman in this district, and his formal announcement appears in The Leader.

Senator Major goes before the Democracy of the Seventh District with the strongest kind of endorsements from the Howard county Democratic committee, the Howard county officers, the Howard county Medical society and the Howard county Bar Association, and with words of commendation from many of the most widely read of the Democratic newspapers of the district. The newspapers of the Fourteenth Senatorial District, such as the Bunceton Eagle, the Versailles Leader and the Boonville Advertiser in rcommending Senator Major to the voters of the Seventh Congressional District, point to his accomplishments in the State Senate. He secured the abolishment of the passenger and freight toll charges at the Boonville bridge of the Katy, introduced and caused to become a law the act establishing the State Poultry Board and the farm at Mountain Grove; interceded for the public in the matter of railway responsibility for baggage in transit and charges for same and had passed a law long demanded by traveling men; created the Missouri Waterways commission, a board of great benefit to river counties of the state; fathered an act giving the county courts power to acquire lands for county farms.

Senator Major voted for and assisted in the passage of the electric headlight bill, the bill providing for the equipment of trains with safety appliances, an act requiring the employees of railroads to be paid the 15th of each month, an act compelling railroads to fill switches and guard rails for safety of employees, an act extending the provisions of the fellow-servant law to mines and mining employees, an act providing for a mine inspector, an act providing for the examinations of certain mines daily, and all other measures tending to benefit the wage workers.

Senator Major is a gentleman of pleasing personality, and while in Sedalia during the past week made many new friends. His record in the upper branch of the Missouri legislature was one of achievement, and if elected to Congress he will as faithfully represent the interest of the constituency of this district in the halls of Congress.
